Fight Song

Fight on, fight on to victory

And raise those banners high.

We'll leave the other team behind

And wave as we go by.

Fight on, big team, right down the field

And show them who we are:

The finest team out front by far

The Gladiators of Gahr.

*Drawn
You real cute girl
I've enjoyed knowing
have fun this summer.
I'm sure you well.
Good luck with the boys. I love "69"*

*Drawn,
I've really
and I've enjoyed this
our friendship I hope
year and I hope it will continue to grow. I wish
of the sweetest and cutest
girls I know and I want to wish you all the luck
and success in the future.
Love Always,
Sandy*

*Drawn,
It's time to tell you
now I feel about you
I think you really
cute and I hope you
get everything you
want from now
on.

Diawn,

I never really knew you but all my friends did and they all said "you should get to know her cause she's real sweet!" Now that I know you I've found out my self and that no one was lying. Have fun.

Gahr High School, we're proud of you.

To thy name we're ever true.

May we always cherish thee

Within our memory.

Hail to thee, our Gladiators

Thy dear name uphold.

We shall ne'er forget

Thine own blue, white,

SYMBOLS OF PRESTIGE

There is a special quality to be found in the seniors of Gahr. They are determined that their last year in high school will neither be wasted nor go unnoticed by others. They have put much effort into achieving this status. The class rings which Gahr's seniors wear are symbolic of this effort and are representative of twelve years of each senior's life.

Finally, in this twelfth year, they are awarded recognition. They become seniors and are treated as such. They supply most of the school's leadership and most of its power. They work the hardest and often cheer the loudest for their school, for the school has become the seniors' own.

At graduation, each senior is awarded a senior key. This key represents a way to the future, a key to the unknown. It is a link with the goal which they have striven toward for so long.

After their graduation, these students will go out as individuals, no longer as members of a group known as "seniors." The future draws closer, the unknown becomes clearer. They have finished with high school. This is the end of one part of their lives. They enter an entirely different, new phase. All they have left of the old, as a class, is the reputation that they have established at Gahr.

The class of '67 need not worry about the reputation they have left at Gahr. This, our first graduating class, has done well, despite all the disadvantages it has had to overcome. And so it is to you, our first senior class, to whom we dedicate this issue of Memoriae Aureae. We hope you will regard your emblem with pride and think of the years you spent at Gahr as "golden memories."

Principal's Message

Seniors, this book is the spirit of our school. May it always preserve many fine memories for you.

The entire staff wish you all the success due you, and we hope in the two short years you have been with us we have given you the tools to reach this success quickly.

You stand on the threshold of a new life. You have climbed the ladder. Now, as seniors, your eyes turn to the future--"the lesson is learned, the page turned, for what is past, weaves today."

Superman! Bring back our ball!

Sneer, man, sneer!

During the past year, many funny little incidents have occurred which have gone unnoticed by the majority of the students. Not all of us can be perfect every day of the year, and not everyone is lucky(?) enough to have a staff photographer around to capture each off-guard moments in stark black and white

Not wishing to slight these small but important events, the yearbook staff thought it appropriate to preserve just such scenes as these for your enjoyment

Don't hurt that nice man! (He's somebody's father.)

The smile that broke a thousand hearts!

Special

Would you believe he's a villain? (in a play, that is)

Lorrie Norring, Jon McCarty, Sherry Garner, Karen MacLean, and Kathy Capadanno modeling their entries for the "Make-it-with-wash" contest

A real "Calamity." (Wasn't it, Ron?)

Memories are made by such things as hurting yourself while deliberately pounding dents in an old jalopy for the Calamity, by hunting up old furniture for use as play props, by participating in extra-curricular activities like the International Assembly or the Father and Son basketball game.

Memories are made, too, by sitting in the bleachers next to your best friend listening to music (like during the Cerritos assembly), or even by sitting in the bleachers next to your mother while watching your dad play basketball in flowered shorts

"Hofborau" it's called, says Mr. Sigen.

Special Recognition Fall Sports

'Twas the week before Christmas,
 And all through the hall
 Most of Gahr's students
 Were having a ball
 Some entertained with their
 So-special voices,
 While others just listened,
 Enjoying the choices of
 Songs that were sung, from Religious to funny; and
 Most everyone could Forget about money, and
 Shopping that had to be
 Done before gift-time
 And when it was over, the Wishes were wished, and
 The spirit were high,
 And the emptied out campus
 Received Goodbye

BE A "G" MAN JOIN GAHR'S BOOSTER CLUB

Gahr's Booster Club consists of actively interested parents who help to promote extra-curricular activities in the school. They sponsor a variety of athletic events and welcome all parents who wish to join them at a nominal fee of one dollar per year. They have met once each month to discuss ways of helping the students, and have contributed a large sum for the Varsity Football Squad and basketball uniforms. For Gahr's Club, The Plover and the Squab.

The executive board, Mr. Richard McDaniel, Mr. Jay McDaniel, Mr. William R. R. and Mr. John T. R. have met the second Tuesday of each month during the school year.

Thanks for the Memories

Just as this page is the end of this issue of Memoriae Aureae, this year is the end of a long school career for many seniors. To us, the end of school means the end of long hours, time for extra sleep, and the feeling that we have accomplished great things. With this, the last page, the final word, we send our creation to press.

Our last official editorial task is to express our gratitude and appreciation to everyone who has helped produce Memoriae Aureae: To those hard-working members of our staff who came in after school, on weekends, and during vacation to help meet deadlines and sell advertising; to RICH RAMIREZ who, although he was not a member of the staff, helped with our sports section; to the COACHES for all their help and never-ending patience with our all-girl staff (we're sorry we lost those scores, honest!).

Vickie and Marilyn working?

To MR. AGUIRRE, we extend our thanks for his superb artwork, to MRS. WILLIAMS and MRS. MARCIAM for all the help they gave with scheduling and money matters, to our FACULTY and ADMINISTRATORS, especially MR. REDFERN, for fine cooperation and help.

Special thanks, too, to DUKE DOWNS, GERALD WALTERS, CARL CULP and MR. TOTUSEK. Without their help in taking pictures, Memoriae Aureae would not be the great book we think it is. Too, we are deeply indebted to MR. ROBERT WATSON for all the time and effort he spent on our color section.

To our ADVERTISERS, also, go heartily thanks for their support of our book. To MR. ROBERT F. MAHON, author of the poem "Your Legacy," we also say thank you.

To MRS. HART, our advisor, we can find no words to express our thanks. Without her, this yearbook would never be a reality.

As you thumb through the pages of Memoriae Aureae, you will feel a sense of pride, as we do, in having been students of RICHARD GAHR HIGH SCHOOL. We sincerely hope you cherish this edition of Memoriae Aureae as your very own "golden memories."

The End

Diawn

Diawn,

To a girl I thought A lot of and will never forget. Thanks for the good memories which will be with me forever. It's too bad that we couldn't really get going but please don't blame me it's just that I loved you too much I guess. And I can't blame you for leaving me because I couldn't expect you to be tied down. I really thought that you cared. I'm sorry for what I said, I really thought I would hurt you but I really must have looked like a fool to you. Thanks for a great time at the Prom you looked like a dream. Give all my love to your Mom because I think she's great. Have a nice summer Best wishes and Good By
